

U.S.A.—The former Latvian player, Zemgalis, now living in the United States, beat Ulverstad in a short match at Seattle by 3-1.

An organization for the furtherance and encouragement of chess has been founded in San Francisco under the title of "Chess Friends of Northern California, Inc." The driving spirit is that of our old friend George Koltanowski, who seems to radiate out chess activity wherever he goes. A bulletin is being published, a league of groups of players has been formed, there is a radio outlet every Friday night, and a television show is projected.
