

Private Arthur Dake, West Coast master and member of the U. S. chess team in the Olympics of 1931, 1933 and 1935, is now helping to make Army trainees chessminded at Camp Roberts, Calif. Here Dake (right) is giving some pointers to Pvt. Emilio Montaner. Looking on, seated, are Pvt. Alfred Brown and Pvt. H. A. Lind. Standing, l. to r., are Pvt. James S. Arrigona, Pvt. George Swigart and Pvt. Robert Bergthold.

Dake has given several demonstrations of his skill at the Camp Roberts Service Club, playing two exhibition contests against a dozen GI opponents.