(a) Sharp continuation known as the "Siesta-Variation." The world belongs to the bold! (b) Wishes to rid himself of the Black Bishop. P-Q3 looks better (c) Naturally. If one plays in gambit style, attack is more important than a pawn. (d) Looks like Black is going to get a triple pawn—but the attack is far from finished—on the contrary, it is only just starting. (e) Well played! The style adopted by Black is very refreshing. (f) If 17.KxR, Q-B7 mate or 17.K-N2, Q-B7ch; 18.K-R3, QxRP mate. This game is one for the books!
