

H&N Adds Column On Chess

Richard Shorman's popular Chess column joins the Herald & News' features today.

A free-lance Russian-English translator, Shorman is a board member and director of junior tournaments for Chess Friends of Northern California and board member and publicity director for the Central California Chess Association.

The chess expert also is president of the Hayward Chess Club.

His column discusses intricate chess moves and explains strategic positions on the board and how to avoid traps.

The feature, which also lists chess events in the area, will appear weekly. Today's column is on Page 3.
