

Photos by Jerry Rainbolt

Taking On the World

During his one-against-many chess exhibition in the Country Club Centre Mall, George Koltanowski ponders a move against Forrest Pinkerman, Hiram Johnson High School junior, before moving on to Mel Rice, right, who played him to a draw in 15 moves. The exhibition attracted dozens of spectators. The chess master met 100 challengers, won 97 and drew 3 games.