

U. S. Junior Chess Title Tourney Set

By George Koltanowski

The United States Junior Chess Championship starts tomorrow at 1 p. m. at the Spreckels-Russell Dairy Company Auditorium, 1717 Mission street. Players from throughout the country are expected to participate in the event, which is open to the public without admission charge.

SONOMA CHESS FESTIVAL is taking on great proportions as the July 21 date approaches. You can still send in your entry plus $1.50 to Lois McVeigh, Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, Sonoma, Calif.

Here is the fifth list of entries: Harry W. Thompson and Elizabeth Thompson, Millbrae; W. C. Makepeace and Marjorie Makepeace, S. F.; Ted Smith, S. F.; Jack R. Dean, S. F.; James B. Packard, Vallejo; Orvil L. Payne, Santa Rosa; Amos C. Knack, Redwood City; Raymond Ausmus, Hayward; L. A. Post, Mill Valley; Warren E. Clifford, S. F.; Chas. Loveland, Fairfax; Hugo Romander, Redwood City; Dr. Leopold Dickstein, Oakland; Harry Steiner, Oakland; C. A. Eastland, Eureka; Chas. Hughes, Richmond; Robert Hughes, Los Altos; John Conness, San Bruno; Dr. Ben Gross, S. F.; Erik Osbun, Santa Rosa; Walter Sherman, Glen Ellen; Ted Dana, Los Altos; Hartnell Lockridge, S. F.; Mrs. James Somerville, Santa Rosa; Bruce Ponoriles, Larkspur; Winifred Killough and Howard Killough Jr., Russell, Kan.

LOOKING AROUND: The first half of the Gambit Tournament in Santa Venetia had 15 players participating. In the finals today, Lothar Salin of San Rafael and Douglas Mulligan of Santa Venetia will fight it out for top honors . . . Terra Linda has formed a chess club. Players can contact Philip White at GL 4-4822. . . . The Champion of Champion tournament at Yankton, S. D., now has 20 State Champions entered. . . . Tomorrow Samuel Reshevsky starts a ten-game match with U. S. Champion Arthur Busguier at the Manhattan Chess Club in New York. . . . You can enter a section of the San Francisco Chronicle Postal Tournament. Groups of four (six games). Send $1 entry fee to George Koltanowski, San Francisco Chronicle, and you will receive list of opponents and rules of play.