an annual fixture.

The 1928 championship of Los Angeles Chess and Checker Club has gone to S. Weinbaum, who scored 11 points in fourteen games. H. Borochow was only half a point behind, and E. Schrader was third with 9.